

LYRICS - 45 KOOL ADE

Words & Music Andy Warren (SOCAN)

He said:

I'll have no time to play no golf
I'll be working for you, all the way through I'll make no cash, and grab no ass
'Cause that is not what presidents do
So imagine your surprise
When that is all that you can see in his eyes

Drinking the 45 kool ade

You got so drunk, you thought you were going to get paid
The 45 kool ade
It turns out, you were being played

He said:

I know the best, people & words
I'll build a wall, America first and suddenly, it's plain to see you elected bigots & jerks
You should not be surprised,
with all of his continual lies.

Drinking the 45 kool ade

You got so drunk, you thought you were going to get paid
The 45 kool ade
It turns out, you were being played

Bait & switch, Russian puppet, man o man,
I cannot stomach it, and I don't even live in the USA!

He said:

There's no need to see my taxes look over there and be distracted
And climate change is a hoax
And I'm the best friend of all the black folks Yeah, you should not be surprised,
with all of his continual lies.

Drinking the 45 kool ade

The 45 kool ade
It turns out, we were being played

45, another lie, he's such a stupid guy
